

Distinguished Professor of Hospital Medicine Poster Walk & Talk

SGIM23 Annual Meeting

Aurora, Colorado

May 11, 2023

4:40pm – 6:10pm

Location: Exhibit Hall 1

Distinguished Professor of Hospital Medicine: Mel Anderson

Moderators: Sarah Hartigan and Elizabeth Murphy

Distinguished Professor of Hospital Medicine (DPHM) Posters for Walk & Talk

1. The Effect of Restrictive red Blood Cell Transfusion on Cognitive Function in Hospitalized Patients
Presenter: Stephanie Cardenas
2. Development and Validation of a Model to Predict Transfusion Requirement During Elective Surgery
Presenter: Matthew Pappas
3. Effect of Empiric Antibiotics for Methicillin-Resistant Staphylococcus Aureus on Mortality for Patients Hospitalized With Bacterial Infections
Presenter: Jurgen Holleck
4. Effect of Weekend vs. Weekday Admission on Endocrine Emergencies Results From National Inpatient Sample Database 2016-2019
Presenter: Bidhya Poudel
5. An Association Between the Inpatient Use of Extended-Release Opioids and Increased Length of Hospitalization for Acute Pain Episodes in Sickle Cell Disease
Presenter: Madison Canning

Poster Walk and Talk Session Format:

- The Distinguished Professor of Hospital Medicine (Mel Anderson) along with the judges will walk to each poster presenter. Each poster presenter will have up to 5 minutes to talk about their poster.
- Distinguished Professor Mel Anderson will ask the poster presenter 2-3 questions
- Repeat x4 for the rest of the posters